

Lead Listing Agent – The Santa Sells Houses Real Estate Team

Role

The Lead Listing Agent is an individual who thrives on taking risks and facing challenges while maintaining a win-win, positive attitude. He/She is attracted to leadership roles, believes in achieving results through empowering others, and is well-liked for his/her optimistic, dynamic personality.

The Lead Listing Agent leads the seller side of the team by hiring, training, consulting, and holding accountable all members of the listing team. In addition, he/she demonstrates on a daily basis the knowledge, attitudes, skills, and habits of a high-achieving listing agent who is committed to putting clients first, to doing the right thing, and to seeking win-win agreements. The Lead Listing Agent prospects for seller leads daily (includes identifying and calling for sale by owner), closes those leads to appointments, closes appointments to agreements, and then provides high-level fiduciary advice on pricing strategy and staging the home for sale. He/She will market the home or work in tandem with a Listing Assistant to launch a marketing campaign. He/She will evaluate showing feedback and reevaluate pricing as needed. Upon receiving an offer, the Lead Listing Agent will negotiate the offer, write the contract, and oversee the deal through its close.

The Lead Listing Agent also demonstrates a commitment to learning and strives for growth by regularly attending courses, teaching when appropriate, and regularly practicing scripts and dialogues. He/She is committed to investing in team members and regularly provides them with learning and growth opportunities as well.
